It was a very insightful and informative session and Madam very well explained about OER and Techno - Pedagogy. Madam provided insights that now OER are very reliable and we can depend on them rather than earlier times when only books were considered reliable for valid information.

Further Madam made us aware about the five important characteristics i.e. 5R'S of OER including:

- Reuse-use the content in its unaltered form
- Revise - adapt, adjust, modify, improve, or alter the content
- Remix – combine the original or revised content with other OER to create something new
- .Redistribute - share copies of the original content, revisions or remixes with others.
- Retain - keep access to the materials after the learning event.

Madam in a very interactive and elaborate way explained the participants about the different copyright licenses designed by the non-profit organization Creative Commons along with their characteristics. In addition to this Madam mentioned about the TIPS Framework of CEMCA that states about the certain criteria to be taken care of while creating OERs so as to ensure good quality under the Quality Assurance Guidelines for OERs. Furthermore Madam made us aware about the various advantages as well as the challenges of OER. Along with this a hands-on session was done by Madam to inform the participants about the various OER websites and OER repositories. This included OER Commons, YouTube Search, Google Images, Open Text Book Library, Oasis, COL's Open Access Repository, Pixabay etc. Madam ended the lecture with a very beautiful quote "If you have knowledge, let others light their candles in it" which went very well with the essence of the topic OER.

All the participants participated very actively and it was a very informative and insightful learning experience for all. The technical session ended with the formal vote of thanks given by Mr. Ranjan Kumar, Doctoral Research Scholar, School of Education, Mahatma Gandhi Central University, Bihar. ## Implementation of Blended Learning in District Institute for Education and Training, Bihar

INTRODUCTION

The COVID-19 pandemic forced teachers to adopt and adapt teaching learning strategies that could be delivered from a distance and in the absence of face-to-face interaction. In May 2021, University Grants Commission (UGC) released its concept note on Blended mode of Teaching and Learning which permitted Higher Education Institutes to teach up to 40% of the syllabus through online mode and the remaining 60% through offline mode. Ratifying the usage of online strategies and empowering teachers to create a blend of an online and offline mode of course delivery, the UGC has acknowledged the need for and importance of using blended learning strategies in education. Commonwealth Educational Media Centre for Asia (CEMCA) & School of Education, Mahatma Gandhi Central University are jointly organising the capacity building programmes that aim to empower teachers, research scholars of higher education from Bihar to implement Blended Learning in their institutions.

ABOUT CEMCA

The Commonwealth Educational Media Centre for Asia (CEMCA) (<http://cemca.org/>) serves as the regional educational media centre of Commonwealth of Learning (COL), Vancouver, Canada (<https://www.col.org/>) for Commonwealth Asia, established at New Delhi in 1994. CEMCA promotes the meaningful, relevant and appropriate use of media and technology to serve the educational and training needs leading to Sustainable Development through learning in Commonwealth member states of Asia. The Govt. of India by a Gazette Notification, dated 10th February 2000, notified CEMCA as a diplomatic mission under provisions of the United Nations (Privileges and Immunities) Act, 1947. CEMCA works in eight Commonwealth countries of Asia: Bangladesh; Brunei; Darussalam, India, Maldives, Malaysia, Pakistan, Singapore and Sri Lanka.

Implementation of Blended Learning in District Institute for Education and Training, Bihar

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Educational Studies under the School of Education came into existence in May 2019. The Department is offering M.A. in Education, M.Phil. in Education and Ph.D. in Education from the academic session 2019-20. The genesis of Department of Educational Studies is new in the University and it has proposed to incorporate all elements of Discipline of Education.

CAPACITY BUILDING PROGRAMME

This is a hands-on training program and it is expected that at the end of the training all participants will create blended learning modules that will be released under suitable Creative Commons License as OER. These modules will be hosted by School of Education, Mahatma Gandhi Central University in collaboration with CEMCA, New Delhi. So that more teacher educators across the country get an access and use for better teaching-learning. Using asynchronous & synchronous learning tools, the training programme will be conducted for five days. All participants will be given certificates after successful completion of the training.
